Mark 9 :11-13 — John the Baptist as Elijah

'And they asked Him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” Then He answered and told them, “Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. And how is it written concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer many things and be treated with contempt? But I say to you that Elijah has also come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him.”'

- Malachi 3:1: '“Behold, I send My messenger, And he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, Will suddenly come to His temple, Even the Messenger of the covenant, In whom you delight. Behold, He is coming,” Says the Lord of hosts.'

Mark 9 :49-50

(49) '"For everyone will be seasoned with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. (50) Salt is good, but if the salt loses its flavor, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another."'

- Leviticus 2:13: 'And every offering of your grain offering you shall season with salt; you shall not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.'
- Numbers 18:19: '"All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the Lord , I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as an ordinance forever; it is a covenant of salt forever before the Lord with you and your descendants with you."'

Fulfillment: Disciples, people of the way (Christians) who lose their "saltiness" aren't just bland — they've lost their covenant integrity. And that, Jesus implies, is very hard to recover.
